

NATIONAL BOARD FOR HIGHER MATHEMATICS (NBHM)

proposes to sponsor delegates to
ICME-13, Hamburg, Germany

The 13th International Congress on Mathematical Education (ICME-13), will be held in Hamburg, Germany, during July 24-31, 2016.

The National Board for Higher Mathematics (NBHM), has the possibility of sponsoring a limited number of Indian mathematics educators to participate in ICME-13. NBHM will sponsor a small delegation which will have a reasonable percentage of women mathematics educators and will be a balanced mix of senior (age 40 and above), junior (age below 40) mathematics educators who are regular members of a recognized research institution or university and a small number of post-doctoral fellows and PhD students who are at an advanced stage of their doctoral programme.

The NBHM support is expected to contribute towards expenses related to travel, accommodation and living expenses (at rates in line with the norms of the Government of India) and the (advance) registration fee.

The grant will only be given to those who agree to attend the entire conference.

Those interested in participating in ICME-13 and are without other means of support may send the application (in the format given at the end of this circular) either by post or by email as an attachment in PDF format to

Prof. Govindan Rangarajan
Department of Mathematics
Indian Institute of Science
